The PCSO Board of Directors approved a resolution calling for a test run of the

S-T-L on December 28, 2005.

The new STL is a democratized form of the grassroots-based lottery and charity first introduced during the time of President Corazon Aquino.

This experimental feature of the new STL gives it the flexibility to institute needed changes during its test-run phase.

The PCSO executed contracts with private corporations for the test runs of STL, with the understanding that a contract can be revoked if a corporation violated any of the provisions in its approved contract.
